

How to read your PAST DUE STATEMENT

The Arvig® statement makes it easy to view your account balance, allows you to change your billing address and more. It also makes it clear when your account is past due. In the event your account is past due, please note that your services will be disconnected if your account is not paid.

The following is for informational purposes only as rates, billing information, names of services, etc. change periodically.

1 Statement Date

The date the statement was printed.

2 Account Number

Have this available when calling customer service or when setting up automatic payments.

3 Previous Balance

Last month's statement balance.

4 Payments Received

Payments received on your account up to the billing date.

5 Total Past Due Balance

Amount that was not paid and is now past due. This amount must be paid by the date noted or service will be suspended.

6 Total Current Charges

Current charges for the bill cycle which must be paid by the date noted.

7 Total Balance Due

Sum of all charges, both past due and current.

8 Summary Of Charges

Summarizes all of the charges on your account for the month.

9 Taxes and Surcharges

Total taxes and surcharges that apply to your bill.

10 Late Notice

A message also prints on your statement notifying you that your account is past due.

11 Arvig Customer Service

Contact phone number and website information for your reference.
